"Sea Smoke."

From Kansas City Star.

One of the peculiar phenomena of the Arctic regions is "sea smoke." Explorers tell of a stream of it from a boiling kettle which rises from the water when the temperature is 15 degrees below zero. At 40 degrees the snow and human bodies emit this vapor, which changes into tiny icy particles which fill the air and make a light noise like the rustling of silk. At 40 degrees tree trunks burst with a loud report, rocks break up and streams cracks in the earth's surface, knives of smoking water flow from great break in cutting butter and lighted cigars go out by contact with ice upon the beard.

Martial Relations.

From Kansas City Star.

Employees of the government are required to answer a page of questions. One question is, "What are your marital relations?" to which the answer should be either, "married," "single," or "widowed." One employee answered, "they are hell."

YUVENILE COURT FOR ADA

"Wave of Crime" in This City Takes Form of Boyish Misdemeanors--Mayor Takes a Hand in Suppression

While the big cities are being terrorized these days by the so-called "wave of crime," Ada, the biggest little city, remains about normal save for the obliquities of the proverbial bad boy.

So numerous have become complaints of youngsters rocking houses, depredating on railroad property, speaking impudently and profanely to elders, and of conducting themselves otherwise obnoxious, that the city officials have been compelled to take a hand.

More than a dozen of the "new idea" have been taken in charge by the city marshal and are now out on probation through the clemency of Mayor Barton.

Judge Barton has given considerable thought to the wayward boy problem. Being deeply sensible of the delicate handling this problem demands, he has established a sort of juvenile court. These tender offenders are not turned loose merely with a lecture or two to instill into each boy brought before him a respect for law and order, a sense of his (the boy's) responsibility for the peace and tranquility of the neighborhood, a realization of the fact that boyish lawlessness leads to outright crime—to the penitentiary. But the mayor is holding a pretty tight string to each offender. If either the boy or his parents treat with indifference or contempt his admonition, the culprit will be brought before the bar and either he or his parents will have to pay the penalty.

But happily most of the offending youngsters are of good family, have been well raised by sensible parents, and the latter are co-operating with the city officials in the undertaking to stamp out the ruffianism and vandalism. Ada is fortunate in having very few incorrigibles, street waifs whose inevitable destination is the reformatory. Judge Barton is quite hopeful of solving the boy problem with mild remedies.

The opening of public schools next month will help him. That will give the boys something to study about besides meanness. Those whose parents do not send to school—well, there might be a law to force them in school.

And even in vacation it is a wise thing to give the average boy something to do, for at least part of the day.

SOME ELOQUENT FIGURES

Appalling Amount of Crime in Pontotoc County Traceable to Liquor--The Corner Saloon the Dispensary

The following words and figures speak for themselves, and most eloquently for a heavy vote in Pontotoc county for state-wide prohibition.

Ada, Ind. Ter., August 8th, 1907. To the Prohibition Executive Committee, Ada Ind. Ter.

Gentlemen: In compliance with your request I have carefully examined the United States Commissioner's dockets, for Ada, Sulphur and Roff, I. T., and herewith I submit the following report as a result of such examination:

Ada docket shows two hundred and twenty-three arraignments before U. S. Commissioner, wherein the defendants were charged with the introduction and sale of whisky.

Thirty murder cases also adorn the pages of these dockets where the evidence shows the defendants to have been under the influence of whiskey at the time the crime was committed.

Fifty-two assault to kill, cases appear on the same dockets, evidence shows positively that whiskey was the cause.

Three cases of rape, three young men while intoxicated committed the horrible crime near Franks, I. T., and now languish in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

Roff, I. T., Commissioner's docket shows twenty-two defendants arrested on the charge of introducing and selling liquor.

Four cases of assault to kill, where defendants were intoxicated appear on this docket.

One case of murder. The same old story, the defendant was intoxicated.

Sulphur, I. T. While there has been little Commissioner's work at this place, yet thirty defendants have appeared before his honor, on the charge of introducing and selling whiskey.

The above reports I assume are absolutely correct, and the docket at this place can best convince the doubtful. In addition I might say that there are many fugitives from justice charged with the crime of introducing and selling liquor, not included in this report. The largest number of these cases came direct from the famous Corner Saloon, at Corner, O. T. Wishing all kinds of success in your valuable work that means so much to the people of the new state, to Oklahoma, and assuring you that I will be at all times only too glad to assist you in your most worthy undertaking.

I am respectfully, etc.,

T. E. Brents,

Office Deputy United States Marshal.

P. S.—I neglected to mention forty-one cases pending in the United States district court at this place where defendants are charged with introducing and selling liquor.

from the war bonnet of Judge Raymond.

"Kansas needn't get so all fired gay," remarked old "Si" Jones of Oklahoma. "Jes' let her come right out and tell where she's gettin' all her Bertie peaches this year."

Dennis Flynn telegraphed congratulations to Gov. Frantz from Portland, Oregon. Flynn will return to Oklahoma next Saturday, after a month's absence on the Pacific coast.

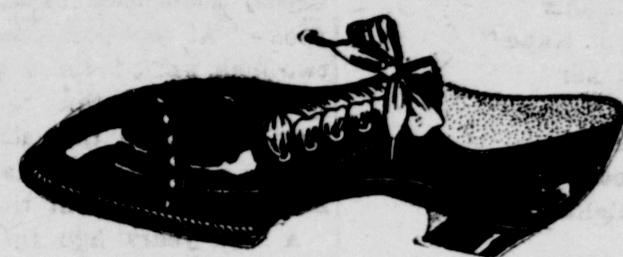

Weather and Attendance.

From Kansas City Journal.

Bishop Sanford Olmstead of Colorado at a dinner in Denver, said apropos of Sabbath breaking: "I was talking to an Eastern clergyman the other day about his church attendance. 'I suppose,' I said, 'in your district rain affects the attendance considerably.' He smiled faintly. 'Indeed, yes,' he said, 'I hardly have a vacant seat when it is too wet for golf or motoring.'"

DEAD MAN'S BRANCH.

Gruesome Place Near Atoka—Scene of Many Bloody Deeds.

McAlester, Aug. 8.—No historian who cares for his reputation for truthfulness will ever attempt to write a history of the Choctaw Nation without mentioning the old road that leads from Atoka to Old Boggy Depot, a distance of twelve miles. Along this short road many murders have been committed, many robberies perpetrated by the bold highwaymen who once roamed at will over this country.

The most dreaded place, the most talked about, and where the greatest number of crimes have been committed is where the road crosses Sandy Creek, about two miles southwest of Atoka. At this point, many years ago, two men were found dead in the thick wood covering this lonely spot. It was then given the name of "Dead Man's Branch" and has carried the name to the present time.

A few years ago the mail carrier who traversed the route from Atoka to Old Boggy Depot was murdered at the same spot where the two men had previously been found. The men who committed these murders were never apprehended and brought to justice; in fact, justice at that time was not lavishly dealt out to offenders in this country.

During the war between the states, Quantrell, in passing this dark and gloomy spot, hung five men there. One of them, it is related, was one of his own men who had disobeyed some of his orders, the others were union soldiers seeking recruits for the northern army.

After the Civil War a stage coach was held up at this place and its occupants robbed of all their money and valuables. About twenty years ago three men were traveling in a heavy spring wagon, stopped at the crossing and camped for the night. Next morning they were gone, but the investigation showed that they had been at work.

Near the road stood a large elm tree under which the men had camped. Starting from this tree they had measured a distance of more than one hundred and fifty feet in several directions. The lines being easily traced by the small stakes they had used and left sticking in the ground. At the end of one of these lines a hole had been dug about three feet deep and a large pot had been removed therefrom. Persons who now live in Atoka say they saw the place whence the pot was taken and who say from the imprint of the pot and its legs it must have been of full ten gallon capacity.

No one ever saw these men again or learned whence they came. People who now live near this crossing declare that ever once in a while men have been seen at this place during the night with lanterns, as if searching for something.

Strange to say, all the murders and robberies that have been committed at this place were all at or near the same spot. Even unto this day persons who have lived there for many years have a strange and uncanny feeling in passing this place and will go many miles around to avoid it, insisting that it is nightly visited by the spirits of the men murdered there.

HASKELL IS INVITED.

To Attend "Ohio Home Coming" in September—Home State Wants to Hear and See "First Governor of Oklahoma."

The following letter from A. P. Sandles, president of the Ohio state board of agriculture and clerk of the Ohio state senate, to the Hon. C. N. Haskell, was received by that gentleman yesterday:

Hon. C. N. Haskell,
Muskogee, Ind. Ter.,

My Dear Governor:

The state board of agriculture and Columbus board of trade are jointly promoting Ohio home coming the 1st week in September. These bodies have imposed upon me the task of securing the presence of the first governor of Oklahoma. We are short on eminent democrats and Long on republicans. Outside of very few the whole state of Ohio is glad you won.

If we can announce that you will be present and make an address on the State Fair Grounds it will interest as many people of the state as any other announcement we can make. I appreciate the fact that you will be in the midst of a strenuous campaign at that time but Ohio wants you very much.

You are going to win your fight anyhow and it won't hurt you any to be alongside of Fairbanks, Foraker, etc.

Give us best promise you can.

Am expecting to see some of your country in near future.

Good health.

Success.

Respectfully,
A. P. Sandles,
Ottawa, Ohio.

WILLIAMS DECLARED NOMINEE.

Wins in the Celebrated Senatorial Contest in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 9.—The democratic executive committee met yesterday and declared Congressman John Sharp Williams as the party nominee for the United States senate.

The canvass of the returns showed a majority of 648 votes, the totals being as follows:

Williams, 59496; Vandaman, 58848.

There will be no contest over the result.

After a short caucus between the two factions it was finally agreed to abide by the semi-official returns as furnished Secretary of State Power of the various counties, and which shows that Mr. Williams has a majority of 648 votes. The motion to declare Williams the nominee was seconded by friends of Governor Vandaman.

The committee then formally declared Mr. Williams nominated as United States senator, and this is considered the final settlement of the now celebrated contest.

Rev. J. B. McDonald, once of Ada, now the presiding elder of the Vinita district, M. E. church South, is not only a strong preacher of the gospel, but is also a man of sagacity in business affairs. During a two days' stay here he has bought eleven more lots. Already he owned several pieces of real estate in Ada. Bro. McDonald is disposing of his holdings in other territory towns for the purpose of investing in this place. He grows eloquent in predicting Ada's future; he thinks the man is hopelessly stupid who investigates the railroad facilities, the cement plant, the soil and other inducements, and does not have faith in Ada becoming a great town.

Held for Creating Abortion.

Dr. G. E. Pyeatt, a prominent physician of Fitzhugh, charged with creating a criminal abortion on Mrs. Ida Ford, of Roff, was placed on preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Winn Wednesday afternoon. The witnesses, including a Roff physician and the woman, were examined. Defendant offered no testimony. He was held over for the grand jury's action under bond of $1,000, which was readily forthcoming.

The doctor's friends insist that it is a foul conspiracy against his reputation.

C. J. Warren left this morning for a week in Kansas City. He tried to go on a faster train last night but an interminable train of freight cars blocked the approach to the station, so he had to just stand at the crossing and hear the train go by.

Rev. J. B. McDonald Thinks Ada is the Coming Town.

Rev. J. B. McDonald, once of Ada, now the presiding elder of the Vinita district, M. E. church South, is not only a strong preacher of the gospel, but is also a man of sagacity in business affairs. During a two days' stay here he has bought eleven more lots. Already he owned several pieces of real estate in Ada. Bro. McDonald is disposing of his holdings in other territory towns for the purpose of investing in this place. He grows eloquent in predicting Ada's future; he thinks the man is hopelessly stupid who investigates the railroad facilities, the cement plant, the soil and other inducements, and does not have faith in Ada becoming a great town.

Held for Creating Abortion.

Dr. G. E. Pyeatt, a prominent physician of Fitzhugh, charged with creating a criminal abortion on Mrs. Ida Ford, of Roff, was placed on preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Winn Wednesday afternoon. The witnesses, including a Roff physician and the woman, were examined. Defendant offered no testimony. He was held over for the grand jury's action under bond of $1,000, which was readily forthcoming.

The doctor's friends insist that it is a foul conspiracy against his reputation.

Frank Maddox left today to spend the week end in Dallas.

Messrs. S. D. and P. Bettes of McAlester are visitors in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Guest returned this morning from a visit in Roff.

W. S. Dabney of Scottsville, Va., an old friend of Lee Eddie Mar, is in the city representing William Woods College, Fulton, Mo.

Tom Smith, Sam McClure, Erwin Chamberlain, and O. J. Cottle of Roff, are attending to business political and otherwise in the county seat today.

Mrs. J. C. Beaty and children returned to Poteau, after a few days' stay here with Mr. Beaty. The family may conclude to make Ada their permanent home.

Dr. R. T. Love and wife have just returned from a visit to Hot Springs and are now permanently located in their new offices over the Ada National bank.

ADA EVENING NEWS.

ADA,

IND. TER.

The Mikado as a Poet.

Great as is the position won for himself by Mutsu Hito in the literature of his country, it must be avowed that his poetry, from the point of view of the west, is second rate, says Current Literature. In the original it is comparable only, affirm native critics, with perfume from the trees. A striking feature of what Dr. James A. B. Scherer—high authority on the subject—terms these Lilliputian odes is, he thinks, their "elliptical terseness of style." Hence, Mutsu Hito's poetry lacks quantity, accent, tone, rhyme, and all the incidents to prosody. His majesty's stanzas are made up of five and seven syllable lines alternating, unless some patriotic frenzy agitates his muse. His genius is grave in the ode, gay in the stanza, enabling him to perform without adventitious aid all the functions of the court poet. Thus, when a lady in the diplomatic circle was returning to her native land, and received in consequence the unprecedented honor of a visit from the empress, a royal stanza embellished the parting. "The gray goose," ran the verse, "is flying westward." The departing lady's white hair was symbolized by that bird to which Japanese artists are so partial, the goose itself being emblematic in the native poetical mind of feminine loveliness in its most ravishing aspects. The Japanese prettiness of the thing is quite sacrificed in our rugged phraseology. Mutsu Hito's poetical fame is, therefore, strictly national.

Coeducation.

All institutions which have been established by the state for higher education should provide for the education of both men and women, and it is a decided gain to have this work done by one institution rather than by two—and, there is no serious objection to the education of men and women in the same institution that has been established for both, says Cyrus Northrop, president of the University of Minnesota, in Collier's. The boys and girls grow up together in the same family; they go together to the same graded school; they go together to the same high school; they go together to the university, and coeducation in the university does not seem to any of them any more strange or unnatural than coeducation in the lower schools has seemed strange. So far as the influence of the men upon the women, or the women upon the men, is concerned, I am quite certain that the result in general is good. The men are made more gentlemanly, and the women, while having all the frankness and freedom of the home life and the school life, never lose the refinement which belongs to them as women. I have no sympathy whatever with the—what shall I call it?—sentimentality which seeks to segregate the women and shut them in by themselves in the work of education.

Earthquake shocks were felt in four continents in the six days between April 14 and 19. They began with destructive shocks in Mexico by which three towns were ruined. Then Spain, Russian Transcaucasia and Constantinople felt the tremors, and there were shocks at Manila and Charleston, and volcanic eruptions accompanied by earthquakes manifested themselves in Chile. It is interesting to note, says Youth's Companion, that these shocks, with the exception of the one at Charleston, occurred in the recognized earthquake belts, one of which encircles the Pacific ocean, and the other goes about the earth by way of Mexico, the West Indies, Spain, Italy, the Caucasus, northern India, the Philippines and the Pacific islands.

So many school children have been found with defective eyesight that the school committees of several cities have considered furnishing eyeglasses free. It is a question how far government should go in supplying citizens with the necessary things of life. Most American parents will prefer to pay the oculist. In many cities are free dispensaries where poor children can be treated and receive free prescriptions for glasses. Parents should be warned against incompetent oculists who take advantage of the reports of the boards of education on the matter of eyesight in the schools, and try to get business for themselves by exaggerated warnings to the "parents of school children threatened with blindness."

"Psychic epilepsy" has succeeded brain storm as a medical term. A New York physician has just been cleared of the charge of brutally assaulting a man and woman on the street on the plea that he had been subject to attacks of psychic epilepsy from childhood, and that on recovery he had no knowledge of what had occurred. Just how the ailment differs from ordinary epilepsy is not made clear, but it will undoubtedly prove to be a convenient alibi in criminal procedure.

COMFORT OF THE GUEST.

Littles Things in Which Some Hostesses Are Remiss.

With all that big empty closet in the guest room it seems a great pity to have one's best frock hung up in a crowded closet. The best frock, dustbag and all are accordingly smuggled into an obscure corner of the closet of the guest chamber, where it will not be the least bit in the way of the guest with the very largest wardrobe. There would be no harm in the party frock if it did not serve as an opening wedge for other garments. It is not long until a lace waist follows the gown, the winter suit and coat follow the waist and the closet has become a veritable storeroom. It is such a handy place and such a temptation to hang this or that odd garment on one of those invitingly empty hooks; but think of the feelings of the poor guest as she opens the closet door. The sight which greets her eye is not one calculated to make her feel very welcome. It suggests too strongly that there is hardly room for her. The same is true of the drawers in the bureau. They afford an excellent place in which to store the best linen, the reserve stock of bedding, and the family heirlooms, but filled with these treasures they do not tempt the poor traveler to unpack her belongings and stop a while. The hostess should remember that if she expects her guest to be comfortable during her stay she must at least give her some place to put her things.

Every hostess, however, is not fortunate enough to have an extra room in her house which she can save exclusively for guests. If such is the case, the visiting friend is usually asked to occupy the room of one of the members of the family who moves out temporarily. If this is done it would be a gentle courtesy if the person who moves out of the room would take with her all the things which she will be apt to need during her temporary encampment. This is by no means to save the guest from the interruption of frequent intrusions, but to keep her from the uncomfortable feeling that she is crowding some one else out of her usual quarters.

The Home Doctor.

Half a teaspoonful of table salt dissolved in a half glassful of cold water will give instant relief in case of heartburn.

Many cases of indigestion, headache, neuralgia, cold hands and feet can be quickly cured by drink slowly one or two pints of water so hot that it almost burns the throat.

To inhale steam from a bowl of boiling water is very good for a sore throat. The sufferer should lean over the steam, drawing it in both throat and nostrils.

People with poor digestion should drink no water with meals, but take a glassful half an hour before and drink plentifully an hour or so after each meal.

Warts may be entirely removed by washing the hands two or three times a day with the water in which potatoes have been boiled, or by bathing the warts several times with potato water.

Hen's Nest Eggs.

Boil six or eight eggs quite hard. When cold and firm cut the whites from the yolks in long thin slips. Set them aside to warm in a slow oven, taking care every now and then to liberally butter them.

Cook very fine any cold chicken or remains of fish, add this to the yolks of the eggs, a little parsley, pepper and salt. When all has been mixed smoothly mold it with the hands into egg-shaped balls. Heap these in the center of a dish.

Arrange the shredded eggs around in imitation of a nest. Return to the oven for a few minutes to warm and just before serving pour over a rich brown sauce.

How to Wash Lace.

Cover a bottle with fine white enamel, and tack the edges of the lace upon it, being careful to fasten down every little point, and lay the lace as straight as possible. Squeeze the bottle in lukewarm soap and water till the lace is clean and rinse in the same way. Put it in the sun to dry, dip bottle and all in starch, then wrap clean cambric round it and let dry in the open air. When quite dry the lace may be untacked and will look as good as new and will need little ironing. Black lace may be washed in the same way, but without soap. A few drops of ammonia may be used instead. Black lace never should be ironed.

To Clean Furniture.

Go over the furniture with a cloth dipped in paraffin oil and allow it to stand for an hour, which will loosen the dirt. Next wash the furniture with a suds made of pure soap and rain water. Rub very dry with a soft cloth and polish with a piece of white flannel dipped in turpentine. This will not injure a piano, but restore the brilliant polish. Furniture gets dull because it is dirty and needs to be cleaned with soap and water.

Lemon Flavoring.

Do not throw away your lemon peeling, but string them on a stout cord and hang up in a clean place to dry. When hard and brittle grate the yellow skin on a nutmeg grater and you will find that this powder makes the best kind of flavoring for cake or pudding. Half a teaspoonful is equal to one teaspoonful of the liquid kind put up in bottles. Orange skin can also be treated in the same way with success.

CROP CONDITIONS IN WESTERN CANADA

Lateness of Spring Overcome by Excellent Growing Summer Season.

Once more the farmers of Western Canada rest at ease and grow rich while they slumber. Their season of anxiety is over. For a time it looked as though a backward season was for once going to prevent the western country from maintaining its preeminent position as leader of the grain growing countries of the world. The unusual lateness of the spring coupled with the rapid advance in the price of food-stuffs gave the pessimists some reason for their gloomy forebodings, and among even the optimistic Westerners imbued as they usually are with a spirit of buoyancy and hope, there commenced to glimmer a fear that perhaps this year's sanguine expectations were not to be realized. On May day when a large proportion of wheat had usually been sown there was this year very little seeding done. Finally, however, winter which had tarried so late in the lap of spring in all parts of the Continent vanished before the vertical rays of the sun, and the hurry and bustle of spring work commenced on the western prairies.

By the 20th of May 85% of the spring wheat was sown and the fall wheat in the districts devoted to its cultivation was covering the fields with a mantle of green. Wheat sowing finished on May 30 and by June 10 the coarser grains were also in the ground. The heavy snowfall during the winter left the ground in excellent shape when once seeding operations commenced and from the time weather conditions permitted the commencement of work until planting was completed, the farmers were a busy class. The area in wheat is not much larger than last year, but oats, barley and flax are much in excess of past records, the farmers deeming it wiser on account of the lateness of the season to put in a heavier proportion of the coarser grains. From the most reliable reports to hand it appears that the acreage as compared with 1906 will show an increase of 12% in oats, 19% in barley and 13% in flax.

Around Akotoks, High River, Nanton, Claresholm and other winter wheat centers, if the present weather conditions continue, the winter wheat will be in head by the middle of July.

The backward weather in the early part of May allowed the newly sown grain to get a firm root in the ground, and now with an abundance of moisture and warm weather the growth is remarkable. All danger of injury from droughts is practically over as the green crop covers the ground retaining the moisture required for its growth and preventing the too rapid evaporation which might otherwise take place.

Crops in Western Canada mature in one hundred days of good weather, and as the weather conditions have been ideal since seeding, and with spring wheat now from 14 to 18 inches above the ground, a full average crop is confidently expected.

In addition to the cheering prospects of this year's yield the farmers are to be congratulated on the fact that they still have in their possession five million bushels of wheat from last year's crop which they are now disposing of at high prices.

The splendid yield of 90,000,000 bushels of wheat raised in 1906 in the three provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, together with the almost certain assurance that this year will see a considerable increase, is, as in the past, calling the attention of the world of the "Last Best West," and thousands from the United States and the agricultural districts of Europe are each month securing free grant lands or purchasing farms in the land which has proved itself peerless among the grain growing countries of the world.

Two Advertising Truths.

A soap millionaire and an actor manager were talking business.

"I," said the actor manager, "have discontinued the use of posters. My announcements appear in the newspapers exclusively. I have learned that those who don't read the papers don't go to the theater."

"You are wise," said the soap millionaire. "And I do like you. Long since I discarded every form of advertisement save that of the press, finding that they who didn't read a daily paper had no use for soap."

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pains of Rheumatism the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the Bowels and Kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be scattered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acrid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism. It contains no potash, alkali or other mineral ingredient, but is made entirely of purifying, healing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks. If you are suffering from Rheumatism do not waste valuable time trying to rub a blood disease away, but begin the use of S. S. S. and write us about your case and our physicians will give you any information or advice desired free of charge and will send our special treatise on Rheumatism.

"Sea Smoke."

From Kansas City Star.

One of the peculiar phenomena of the Arctic regions is "sea smoke." Explorers tell of a stream of it from a boiling kettle which rises from the water when the temperature is 15 degrees below zero. At 40 degrees the snow and human bodies emit this vapor, which changes into tiny icy particles which fill the air and make a light noise like the rustling of silk. At 40 degrees tree trunks burst with a loud report, rocks break up and streams cracks in the earth's surface, knives of smoking water flow from great break in cutting butter and lighted cigars go out by contact with ice upon the beard.

YUVENILE COURT FOR ADA

"Wave of Crime" in This City Takes Form of Boyish Misdemeanors--Mayor Takes a Hand in Suppression

While the big cities are being terrorized these days by the so-called "wave of crime," Ada, the biggest little city, remains about normal save for the obliquities of the proverbial bad boy.

So numerous have become complaints of youngsters rocking houses, depredating on railroad property, speaking impudently and profanely to elders, and of conducting themselves otherwise obnoxious, that the city officials have been compelled to take a hand.

More than a dozen of the "new idea" have been taken in charge by the city marshal and are now out on probation through the clemency of Mayor Barton.

Judge Barton has given considerable thought to the wayward boy problem.

Being deeply sensible of the delicate handling this problem demands, he has established a sort of juvenile court. These tender offenders are not turned loose merely with a lecture on up-to-instill into each boy brought before him a respect for law and order, a sense of his (the boy's) responsibility for the peace and tranquility of the neighborhood, a realization of the fact that boyish lawlessness leads to outright crime—to the penitentiary. But the mayor is holding a pretty tight string to each offender. If either the boy or his parents treat with indifference or contempt his admonition, the culprit will be brought before the bar and either he or his parents will have to pay the penalty.

But happily most of the offending youngsters are of good family, have been well raised by sensible parents, and the latter are co-operating with the city officials in the undertaking to stamp out the ruffianism and vandalism.

Ada is fortunate in having very few incorrigibles, street waifs whose inevitable destination is the reformatory. Judge Barton is quite hopeful of solving the boy problem with mild remedies.

The opening of public schools next month will help him. That will give the boys something to study about besides meanness. Those whose parents do not send to school—well, there might be a law to force them in school.

And even in vacation it is a wise thing to give the average boy something to do, for at least part of the time.

SOME ELOQUENT FIGURES

Appalling Amount of Crime in Pontotoc County Traceable to Liquor--The Corner Saloon the Dispensary

The following words and figures speak for themselves, and most eloquently for a heavy vote in Pontotoc county for state-wide prohibition.

Ada, Ind. Ter., August 8th, 1907. To the Prohibition Executive Committee, Ada Ind. Ter.

Gentlemen: In compliance with your request I have carefully examined the United States Commissioner's dockets, for Ada, Sulphur and Roff, I. T., and herewith I submit the following report as a result of such examination:

Ada docket shows two hundred and twenty-three arraignments before U. S. Commissioner, wherein the defendants were charged with the introduction and sale of whisky.

Thirty murder cases also adorn the pages of these dockets where the evidence shows the defendants to have been under the influence of whiskey at the time the crime was committed.

Fifty-two assault to kill, cases appear on the same dockets, evidence shows positively that whiskey was the cause.

Three cases of rape, three young men while intoxicated committed the horrible crime near Franks, I. T., and now languish in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

Roff, I. T., Commissioner's docket shows twenty-two defendants arrested on the charge of introducing and selling liquor.

Four cases of assault to kill, where defendants were intoxicated appear on this docket.

One case of murder. The same old story, the defendant was intoxicated.

Sulphur, I. T. While there has been little Commissioner's work at this place, yet thirty defendants have appeared before his honor, on the charge of introducing and selling whisky.

The above reports I assume are absolutely correct, and the docket at this place can best convince the doubtful.

In addition I might say that there are many fugitives from justice charged with the crime of introducing and selling liquor, not included in this report.

The largest number of these cases came direct from the famous Corner Saloon, at Corner, O. T. Wishing all kinds of success in your valuable work that means so much to the people of the new state, to Oklahoma, and assuring you that I will be at all times only too glad to assist you in your most worthy undertaking.

I am respectfully, etc.,

T. E. Brents,

Office Deputy United States Marshal.

P. S.—I neglected to mention forty-one cases pending in the United States district court at this place where defendants are charged with introducing and selling liquor.

from the war bonnet of Judge Raymond.

"Kansas needn't get so all fired gay," remarked old "St" Jones of Oklahoma. "Jes' let her come right out and tell where she's gettin' all her Bertie peaches this year."

Dennis Flynn telegraphed congratulations to Gov. Frantz from Portland, Oregon. Flynn will return to Oklahoma next Saturday, after a month's absence on the Pacific coast.

Weather and Attendance.

From Kansas City Journal.

Bishop Sanford Olmstead of Colorado at a dinner in Denver, said apropos of Sabbath breaking: "I was talking to an Eastern clergyman the other day about his church attendance. 'I suppose,' I said, 'in your district rain affects the attendance considerably.' He smiled faintly. 'Indeed, yes,' he said. 'I hardly have a vacant seat when it is too wet for golf or motorboating.'

DEAD MAN'S BRANCH.

Grotesque Place Near Atoka—Scene of Many Bloody Deeds.

McAlester, Aug. 8.—No historian who cares for a reputation for truthfulness will ever attempt to write a history of the Choctaw Nation without mentioning the old road that leads from Atoka to Old Boggy Depot, a distance of twelve miles. Along this short road many murders have been committed, many robberies perpetrated by the bold highwaymen who once roamed at will over this country.

The most dreaded place, the most talked about, and where the greatest number of crimes have been committed is where the road crosses Sandy Creek, about two miles southwest of Atoka. At this point, many years ago, two men were found dead in the thick wood covering this lonely spot. It was then given the name of "Dead Man's Branch" and has carried the name to the present time.

A few years ago the mail carrier who traversed the route from Atoka to Old Boggy Depot was murdered at the same spot where the two men had previously been found. The men who committed these murders were never apprehended and brought to justice; in fact, justice at that time was not lavish enough to offenders in this country.

During the war between the states, Quantrell, in passing this dark and gloomy spot hung five men there. One of them, it is related, was one of his own men who had disobeyed some of his orders, the others were union soldiers seeking recruits for the northern army.

After the Civil War a stage coach was held up at this place and its occupants robbed of all their money and valuables. About twenty years ago three men were traveling in a heavy spring wagon, stopped at the crossing and camped for the night. Next morning they were gone, but the investigation showed that they had been at work.

Near the road stood a large elm tree under which the men had camped. Starting from this tree they had measured a distance of more than one hundred and fifty feet in several directions. The lines being easily traced by the small stakes they had used and left sticking in the ground. At the end of one of these lines a hole had been dug about three feet deep and a large pot had been removed therefrom. Persons who now live in Atoka say they saw the place whence the pot was taken and who say from the imprint of the pot and its legs it must have been of full ten gallon capacity.

No one ever saw these men again or learned whence they came. People who now live near this crossing declare that ever once in a while men have been seen at this place during the night with lanterns, as if searching for something.

Strange to say, all the murders and robberies that have been committed at this place were all at or near the same spot. Even unto this day persons who have lived there for many years have a strange and uncanny feeling in passing this place and will go many miles around to avoid it, insisting that it is nightly visited by the spirits of the men murdered there.

HASKELL IS INVITED.

To Attend "Ohio Home Coming" in September—Home State Wants to Hear and See "First Governor" nor of Oklahoma.

The following letter from A. P. Sanders, president of the Ohio state board of agriculture and clerk of the Ohio state senate, to the Hon. C. N. Haskell, was received by that gentleman yesterday.

Hon. C. N. Haskell,
Muskegon, Ind. Ter.

My Dear Governor

The state board of agriculture and Columbus board of trade are jointly promoting Ohio home coming the 1st week in September. These bodies have imposed upon me the task of securing the presence of the first governor of Oklahoma. We are short on eminent democrats and long on republicans. Outside of very few the whole state of Ohio is glad you won.

If we can announce that you will be present and make an address on the State Fair Grounds it will interest as many people of the state as any other announcement we can make. I appreciate the fact that you will be in the midst of a strenuous campaign at that time but Ohio wants you very much.

You are going to win your fight anyhow and it won't hurt you any to be alongside of Fairbanks, Foraker, etc. Give us best promise you can.

Am expecting to see some of your country in near future

Good health.

Success.

Respectfully,
A. P. Sanders,
Ottawa, Ohio.

WILLIAMS DECLARED NOMINEE.

Win in the Celebrated Senatorial Contest in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 8.—The democratic executive committee met yesterday and declared Congressman John Sharp Williams as the party nominee for the United States senate.

The canvass of the returns showed a majority of 848 votes, the totals being as follows: Williams, 59496; Vandaman, 58845. There will be no contest over the result.

After a short caucus between the two factions it was finally agreed to abide by the semi-official returns as furnished Secretary of State Power of the various counties, and which shows that Mr. Williams has a majority of 848 votes. The motion to declare Williams the nominee was seconded by friends of Governor Vardaman.

The committee then formally declared Mr. Williams nominated as United States senator, and this is considered the final settlement of the now celebrated contest.

JOHN D. GOOD FOR '94.

His Physician Says He is a New Man Physically.

Cleveland, Aug. 8.—That John D. Rockefeller will live to be more than 94 is the prediction of Dr. H. F. Biggar, his family physician. Dr. Biggar watched Mr. Rockefeller play golf over the Forest Hill links yesterday and at the finish declared the Standard Oil magnate was likely to live more than a quarter of a century longer.

William Rockefeller, John D.'s father, is still living and is 94.

"Mr. Rockefeller has been born twice physically and he is only 14 years old now," said Dr. Biggar. He is growing up again, and growing up scientifically, adding to his muscle, to his lungs, to his heart power with every breath of fresh air he takes on Forest Hill and with every drive he makes at the golf club.

"Mr. Rockefeller came to Cleveland in 1893, in the middle of the panic period, completely broken in health and spirit. He could eat nothing which would nourish him. His appetite was gone and his appetite was a wreck. He was seeking a remedy for his nervous system was a wreck.

"Doctor, I am a sick man. I'm afraid I am going to die. But it is not on account of the financial situation that I am sick," he said. "It is through disappointment of my friends."

He asked the doctor to help him. After a few days Dr. Biggar went to Mr. Rockefeller with this prescription: Drop business cares, take regular exercise, keep in the open air, forget everything but play as if your life depended upon it.

Mr. Rockefeller carried out the prescription and dieted religiously.

GREENBACKS as Cow Feed.

The Roff Eagle relates the following story of a cow, apparently an omnivorous animal:

"While out in the country last Friday Lee Dowdy discovered a freak cow one that had such a peculiar fondness for Uncle Sam's greenbacks that she appropriated two five dollar Williams of Lee's for an ordinary chewing cud, which caused him some inconvenience as well as being rather expensive. It happened in this way Lee's old friend, Tom Reynolds of El Paso, was visiting him a few days and he desired to take him to the creek to show him that suckers could be snagged at least one end of the pole. Bait was scarce and the boys had disrobed and gone into the water to seize for minnows, hanging their pants to a hickory limb, when the aristocratic bovine chanced along, chewing up their trousers, in which there happened to be pieces of currency of the above domination. The boys tell it on Lee that he used a nearby salt barrel in returning to town, but this he denies, as there happened to be several lap robes and side curtains in th buggy at the time.

WIFE MINISTER INVESTOR.

Rev. J. B. McDonald Thinks Ada is the Coming Town.

Rev. J. B. McDonald, once of Ada, now the presiding elder of the Vinita district, M. E. church South, is not only a strong preacher of the gospel, but is also a man of sagacity in business affairs. During a two days' stay here he has bought eleven more lots. Already he owned several pieces of real estate in Ada. Rev. Mr. McDonald is disposing of his holdings in other territory towns for the purpose of investing in this place. He grows eloquent in predicting Ada's future; he thinks the man is hopelessly stupid who investigates the railroad facilities, the cement plant, the soil and other inducements, and does not have faith in Ada becoming a great town.

Held for Creating Abortion.

Dr. G. E. Pyatt, a prominent physician of Pittsburg, charged with creating a criminal abortion on Mrs. Ida Ford, of Roff, was placed on preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Winn Wednesday afternoon. The witnesses, including a Roff physician and the woman, were examined. Defendant offered no testimony. He was held over for the grand jury's action under bond of $1,000, which was readily forthcoming.

The doctor's friends insist that it is a foul conspiracy against his reputation.

Oriental Gravity.

From Reynold's Newspaper.

On one occasion when an Eastern potentate was the guest of English royalty he was taken to Epsom to see the Derby run.

The dusky ruler noted the enthusiasm when some thoroughbred in a close finish beat his rivals.

He was quite curious about it. "Why are all the people making all the noise?" he asked.

"Why, don't you see that — has won the Derby?" answered one of his English companions.

Then with gravity observed the Oriental: "Were they not already aware that one horse can run faster than another?"

DOOM OF MIGHTY LONDON.

Fire About the Only Agent Which Can Cause its Destruction.

With hints of German invasion and of an approaching earthquake, the question "What will be the doom of London?" seems not unreasonable one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about the ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealander is to cast his moralizing eye? Several answers may be given. The destruction of London at the hands of a victorious invader is possible, but extremely improbable. London may be besieged, even bombarded; she cannot be destroyed. Flood? This again may be dismissed as most improbable; and one calamity only remains to be considered, namely—fire. Now, London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause, and in 1666 the city was practically wiped out. Every one knows this; but it is not every one who knows that the great conflagration was predicted 15 years before by Lilly, the astrologer, and by another astrologer, Nostradamus, a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quatraine, the gist of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St. Paul's and 80 other churches—Casella's Saturday Journal.

TRUE TO HIS PROMISE.

By Their Own Testimony, Doctor Had Rejuvenated Patients.

A German doctor who claimed to have discovered the secret of restoring youth, advertised in London that he could in two days rejuvenate the most decrepit hag. This brought a crowd of ancient dames to his house. At the first interview he invited each patient to write her surname, Christian name and age on a piece of paper. The ages whereof they pleaded guilty varied, but all ruled high. The doctor undertook to give each patient the promised elixir next day. On the appointed day the doctor regretted that he unfortunately had mislaid the paper containing his youth-seekers' ages, and he, therefore, requested each one to write it down and call again. In writing down her age the second time each woman took many years off the age she previously had admitted. The doctor, pretending to have found the first paper, called them to witness, comparing the lists, that he had kept his word, inasmuch as in 48 hours they had all become many years younger.

"Sea Smoke."

From Kansas City Star.

One of the peculiar phenomena of the Arctic regions is "sea smoke." Explorers tell of a stream of it from a boiling kettle which rises from the water when the temperature is 15 degrees below zero. At 40 degrees the snow and human bodies emit this vapor which changes into tiny icy particles which fill the air and make a light noise like the rustling of silk. At 40 degrees tree trunks burst with a loud report, it's break up and streams cracks in the earth's surface, knives of smoking water flow from great break in cutting butter and lighted cigars go out by contact with ice upon the beard.

JUVENILE COURT FOR ADA

"Wave of Crime" in This City Takes Form of Boyish Misdemeanors--Mayor Takes a Hand in Suppression

While the big cities are being terrorized these days by the so-called "wave of crime," Ada, the biggest little city, remains about normal save for the ubiquitous of the proverbial bad boy.

So numerous have become complaints of youngsters robbing houses, depredating on railroad property, speaking impudently and profanely to elders, and, of conducting themselves otherwise obnoxious, that the city officials have been compelled to take a hand.

More than a dozen of the "new idea" have been taken in charge by the city marshal and are now out on probation through the clemency of Mayor Barton.

Judge Barton has given considerable thought to the wayward boy problem. Being deeply sensible of the delicate handling this problem demands, he has established a sort of juvenile court. These tender offenders are not turned loose merely with a lecture on up-to-instill into each boy brought before him a respect for law and order, a sense of his (the boy's) responsibility for the peace and tranquility of the neighborhood, a realization of the fact that boyish lawlessness leads to outright crime—to the penitentiary. But the mayor is holding a "pretty tight string to each offender. If either the boy or his parents treat with indifference or contempt his admonition, the culprit will be brought before the bar and either he or his parents will have to pay the penalty.

But happily most of the offending youngsters are of good family, have been well raised by sensible parents, and the latter are co-operating with the city officials in the undertaking to stamp out the ruffianism and vandalism.

Ada is fortunate in having very few incorrigibles, street waifs whose inevitable destination is the reformatory. Judge Barton is quite hopeful of solving the boy problem with mild remedies.

The opening of public schools next month will help him. That will give the boys something to study about besides meanness. Those whose parents do not send to school—well, there might be a law to force them in school.

And even in vacation it is a wise thing to give the average boy something to do, for at least part of the day.

SOME ELOQUENT FIGURES

Appalling Amount of Crime in Pontotoc County Traceable to Liquor--The Corner Saloon the Dispensary

The following words and figures speak for themselves, and most eloquently for a heavy vote in Pontotoc county for state-wide prohibition.

Adm. Ind. Ter., August 8th, 1907.
To the Prohibition Executive Committee, Ada Ind. Ter.

Gentlemen: In compliance with your request I have carefully examined the United States Commissioner's dockets, for Ada, Sulphur and Roff, I. T., and herewith I submit the following report as a result of such examination:

Ada docket shows two hundred and twenty-three arraignments before U. S. Commissioner, wherein the defendants were charged with the introduction and sale of whisky.

Thirty murder cases also adorn the pages of these dockets where the evidence shows the defendants to have been under the influence of whiskey at the time the crime was committed.

Fifty-two assault to kill, cases appear on the same dockets, evidence shows positively that whiskey was the cause.

Three cases of rape, three young men while intoxicated committed the horrible crime near Franks, I. T., and now languish in the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

Roff, I. T., Commissioner's docket shows twenty-two defendants arrested on the charge of introducing and selling liquor.

Four cases of assault to kill, where defendants were intoxicated appear on this docket.

One case of murder. The same old story, the defendant was intoxicated.

Sulphur, I. T. While there has been little Commissioner's work at this place, yet thirty defendants have appeared before his honor, on the charge of introducing and selling whiskey.

The above reports I assume are absolutely correct, and the docket at this place can best convince the doubtful.

In addition I might say that there are many fugitives from justice charged with the crime of introducing and selling liquor, not included in this report. The largest number of these cases came direct from the famous Corner Saloon, at Corner, O. T. Wishing all kinds of success in your valuable work that means so much to the people of the new state, to Oklahoma, and assuring you that I will be at all times only too glad to assist you in your most worthy undertaking.

I am respectfully, etc.,
T. E. Brents,

"Kansas needn't get so all fired gay," remarked old "Si" Jones of Oklahoma. "Jes' let her come right out and tell where she's gettin' all her' Bertie peaches this year."

Dennis Flynn telegraphed congratulations to Gov. Frantz from Portland, Oregon. Flynn will return to Oklahoma next Saturday, after a month's absence on the Pacific coast.

Weather and Attendance.
From Kansas City Journal.

Bishop Sanford Olmstead of Colorado at a dinner in Denver, said apropos of Sabbath breaking: "I was talking to an Eastern clergyman the other day about his church attendance. 'I suppose,' I said, 'in your district rain affects the attendance considerably.' He smiled faintly. 'Indeed, yes,' he said, 'I hardly have a vacant seat when it is too wet for golf or motoring.'

DEAD MAN'S BRANCH.

Greasee Place Near Atoka—Scene of Many Bloody Deeds.

McAlester, Aug. 8—No historian who cares for a reputation for truthfulness will ever attempt to write a history of the Choctaw Nation without mentioning the old road that leads from Atoka to Old Boggy Depot, a distance of twelve miles. Along this short road many murders have been committed, many robberies perpetrated by the bold highwaymen who once roamed at will over this country.

The most dreaded place, the most talked about, and where the greatest number of crimes have been committed is where the road crosses Sandy Creek, about two miles southwest of Atoka. At this point, many years ago, two men were found dead in the thick wood covering this lonely spot. It was then given the name of "Dead Man's Branch" and has carried the name to the present time.

A few years ago the mail carrier who traversed the route from Atoka to old Boggy Depot was murdered at the same spot where the two men had previously been found. The men who committed these murders were never apprehended and brought to justice. In fact, justice at that time was not lavishly dealt out to offenders in this country.

During the war between the states, Quantrell, in passing this dark and gloomy spot hung five men there. One of them, it is related, was one of his own men who had disobeyed some of his orders, the others were union soldiers seeking recruits for the northern army.

After the Civil War a stage coach was held up at this place and its occupants robbed of all their money and valuables. About twenty years ago three men were traveling in a heavy spring wagon, stopped at the crossing and camped for the night. Next morning they were gone, but the investigation showed that they had been at work.

Near the road stood a large elm tree under which the men had camped. Starting from this tree they had measured a distance of more than one hundred and fifty feet in several directions. The lines being easily traced by the small stakes they had used and left sticking in the ground. At the end of one of these lines a hole had been dug about three feet deep and a large pot had been removed therefrom. Persons who now live in Atoka say they saw the place whence the pot was taken and who say from the imprint of the pot and its legs it must have been of full ten gallon capacity.

No one ever saw these men again or learned whence they came. People who now live near this crossing declare that ever once in a while men have been seen at this place during the night with lanterns, as if searching for something.

Strange to say, all the murders and robberies that have been committed at this place were all at or near the same spot. Even unto this day persons who have lived there for many years have a strange and uncanny feeling in passing this place and will go many miles around to avoid it, insisting that it is nightly visited by the spirits of the men murdered there.

HASKELL IS INVITED.

To Attend "Ohio Home Coming" in September—Home State Wants to Hear and See "First Governor" of Oklahoma.

The following letter from A. P. Sanders, president of the Ohio state board of agriculture and clerk of the Ohio state senate, to the Hon. C. N. Haskell was received by that gentleman yesterday:

Hon. C. N. Haskell:

Muskogee, Ind. Ter
My Dear Governor:

The state board of agriculture and Columbus board of trade are jointly promoting Ohio home coming the 1st week in September. These bodies have imposed upon me the task of securing the presence of the first governor of Oklahoma. We are short on eminent democrats and long on republicans. Outside of very few the whole state of Ohio is glad you won.

If we can announce that you will be present and make an address on the State Fair Grounds it will interest as many people of the state as any other announcement we can make. I appreciate the fact that you will be in the midst of a strenuous campaign at that time but Ohio wants you very much.

You are going to win your fight anyhow and it won't hurt you any to be alongside of Fairbanks, Foraker, etc.

Give us best promise you can.

Am expecting to see some of your country in near future.

Good health.

Success.

Respectfully,

A. P. Sanders,
Ottawa, Ohio.

WILLIAMS DECLARED NOMINEE.

Wins in the Celebrated Senatorial Contest in Mississippi.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 9.—The democratic executive committee met yesterday and declared Congressman John Sharp Williams as the party nominee for the United States senate.

The canvass of the returns showed a majority of 648 votes, the totals being as follows:

Williams, 59496; Vandaman, 58348.

There will be no contest over the result.

After a short caucus between the two factions it was finally agreed to abide by the semi-official returns as furnished Secretary of State Power of the various counties, and which shows that Mr. Williams has a majority of 648 votes. The motion to declare Williams the nominee was seconded by friends of Governor Vandaman.

The committee then formally declared Mr. Williams nominated as United States senator, and this is considered the final settlement of the now celebrated contest.

JOHN D. GOOD FOR ME.

His Physician Says He is a New Man Physically.

Cleveland, Aug. 8.—That John D. Rockefeller will live to be more than 94 is the prediction of Dr. H. F. Bigger, his family physician. Dr. Bigger watched Mr. Rockefeller play golf over the Forest Hill links yesterday and at the finish declared the Standard Oil magnate was likely to live more than a quarter of a century longer.

William Rockefeller, John D.'s father, is still living and is 94.

"Mr. Rockefeller has been born twice physically and he is only 14 years old now," said Dr. Bigger. He is growing up again, and growing up scientifically, adding to his muscle, to his lungs, to his heart power with every breath of fresh air he takes on Forest Hill and with every drive he makes at the golf club.

"Mr. Rockefeller came to Cleveland in 1893, in the middle of the panic period, completely broken in health and spirit. He could eat nothing which would nourish him. His appetite was gone and his nervous system was a wreck.

Doctor I am a sick man. I'm afraid I am going to die. But it is not on account of the financial situation that I am sick, he said. It is through disappointment of my friends."

He asked the doctor to help him. After a few days Dr. Bigger went to Mr. Rockefeller with this prescription: Drop business cares take regular exercise, keep in the open air, forget everything but play as if your life depended upon it."

Mr. Rockefeller carried out the prescription and dined religiously.

GREENBACKS AS COW FEED.

The Roff Eagle relates the following story of a cow apparently an omnivorous animal.

While out in the country last Friday Lee Dowdy discovered a freak cow one that had such a peculiar fondness for Uncle Sam's greenbacks that she appropriated two five dollar bills of Lee's for an ordinary chewing out which caused him some inconvenience as well as being rather expensive. It happened in this way Lee's old friend Tom Reynolds of El Paso was visiting him a few days and he desired to take him to the creek to show him that suckers could be snagged at least one end of the pole. Bate was scarce and the boys had disrobed and gone into the water to seize for minnows hanging their pants to a hickory limb when the aristocratic bovine chanced along chewing up their trowsers in which there happened to be pieces of currency of the above domination. The boys tall it on Lee that he used a nearby salt barrel in returning to town but this denies as there happened to be several lap robes and side curtains in the buggy at the time.

INDIAN GROUND TO PLACES.

Pauls Valley, I. T., Aug. 9.—The body of Seth Hazel of Lindsay was found scattered along the Santa Fe track the distance of a quarter of a mile yesterday. He was struck by the northbound passenger train in the north part of town and the body ground to pieces, and so badly mutilated that it could not be recognized only by clothing and papers in his pockets. He was an Indian citizen about thirty years old and well known in this section. He had been here to participate in the roping contest yesterday and was last seen alive about 11 o'clock. No one has any idea of how he happened to be at the place where he was killed or in what manner it was done. The body was shipped to his home.

DRY IN NEW MEXICO.

Guthrie, Aug. 8—Deputy United States Marshal Dave Hadden, who has returned from his vacation spent in New Mexico, says that in the Southwest, where there is no irrigation, the settlers are in terrible straits. At Carlsbad he says there has been no rain for a year and cattle in great numbers are dying.

After explaining the song to them very carefully, she asked the class to copy the first stanza from the blackboard, where she had written it, and try to illustrate the verse with drawings in the same way a story is illustrated.

Rev. J. B. McDonald Thinks Ada is the Coming Town.

Rev. J. B. McDonald, once of Ada, now the presiding elder of the Vinita district, M. E. church South, is not only a strong preacher of the gospel, but is also a man of sagacity in business affairs. During a two days' stay here he has bought eleven more lots. Already he owned several pieces of real estate in Ada. Bro. McDonald is disposing of his holdings in other territory towns for the purpose of investing in this place. He grows eloquent in predicting Ada's future; he thinks the man is hopelessly stupid who investigates the railroad facilities, the cement plant, the soil and other inducements, and does not have faith in Ada becoming a great town.

The doctor's friends insist that it is a foul conspiracy against his reputation.

Oriental Gravity.
From Reynold's Newspaper.
On one occasion when an Eastern potentate was the guest of English royalty he was taken to Epsom to see the Derby run.

The dusky ruler noted the enthusiasm when some thoroughbred in a close finish beat his rivals.
He was quite curious about it.
"Why are all the people making all the noise?" he asked.

"Why, don't you see that — has won the Derby?" answered one of his English companions.

Then with gravity observed the Oriental: "Were they not already aware that one horse can run faster than another?"

DOOM OF MIGHTY LONDON.

Fire About the Only Agent Which Can Cause Its Destruction.

With hints of German invasion and of an approaching earthquake, the question "What will be the doom of London?" seems a not unreasonable one. What will be the end of the great city? What will bring about the ruin over which Macaulay's New Zealander is to cast his moralizing eye? Several answers may be given. The destruction of London at the hands of a victorious invader is possible, but extremely improbable. London may be besieged, even bombarded; she cannot be destroyed. Flood? This again may be dismissed as most improbable; and one calamity only remains to be considered, namely—fire. Now, London has suffered more than once terribly from this cause, and in 1666 the city was practically wiped out. Every one knows this; but it is not every one who knows that the great conflagration was predicted 15 years before by Lilly, the astrologer, and by another astrologer, Nostradamus, a century before that. Nostradamus cast his prediction in a French quatrain, the gist of which was that in 1666 London would be visited by a conflagration which would destroy St. Paul's and 89 other churches.—Cassell's Saturday Journal.

TRUE TO HIS PROMISE.

By Their Own Testimony, Doctor Mad Rejuvenated Patients.

A German doctor who claimed to have discovered the secret of restoring youth, advertised in London that he could in two days rejuvenate the most decrepit hag. This brought a crowd of ancient dames to his house. At the first interview he invited each patient to write her surname, Christian name and age on a piece of paper. The ages whereof they pleaded guilty varied, but all ruled high. The doctor undertook to give each patient the promised elixir next day. On the appointed day the doctor regretted that he unfortunately had mislaid the paper containing his youth-seekers' ages, and he, therefore, requested each one to write it down and call again. In writing down her age the second time each woman took many years off the age she previously had admitted. The doctor, pretending to have found the first papers, called them to witness, comparing the lists, that he had kept his word, inasmuch as in 48 hours they had all become many years younger.

The Mi-ado as a Poet.

Great as is the position won for himself by Mutsu Hito in the literature of his country, it must be avowed that his poetry from the point of view of the west is second rate says Current Literature. In the original it is comparable only to native critics with perfume from the trees. A striking feature of what Dr James A B Scherer—high authority on the subject—terms these Lilliputian odes is he thinks their elliptical terseness of style. Hence Mutsu Hito's poetry lacks quantity, accent, tone, rhyme and all the incidents to prosody. His majesty's stanzas are made up of five and seven syllable lines alternating unless some patriotic frenzy agitates his muse. His genius is grave in the ode, gay in the stanza enabling him to perform with out adventitious aid all the functions of the court poet. Thus when a lady in the diplomatic circle was returning to her native land, and received in consequence the unprecedented honor of a visit from the empress a royal stanza embellished the putting. The gray goose ran the verse is flying westward. The departing lady's white hair was symbolized by that bird to which Japanese artists are so partial the goose itself being emblematic in the native poetical mind of feminine loveliness in its most ravishing aspects. The Japanese prettiness of the thing is quite sacrificed in our rugged phraseology. Mutsu Hito's poetical fame is therefore strictly national.

Coeducation

All institutions which have been established by the state for higher education should provide for the education of both men and women and it is a decided gain to have this work done by one institution rather than by two—and there is no serious objection to the education of men and women in the same institution that has been established for both says Cyrus Norrump president of the University of Minnesota, in Collier's. The boys and girls grow up together in the same family, they go together to the same graded school, they go together to the same high school, they go together to the university and coeducation in the university does not seem to any of them any more strange or unnatural than coeducation in the lower schools has seemed strange. So far as the influence of the men upon the women or the women upon the men is concerned, I am quite certain that the result in general is good. The men are made more gentlemanly and the women while having all the frankness and freedom of the home life and the school life, never lose the refinement which belongs to them as women. I have no sympathy whatever with the—what shall I call it—sentimentality which seeks to segregate the women and shut them in by themselves in the work of education.

Earthquake shocks were felt in four continents in the six days between April 14 and 19. They began with destructive shocks in Mexico by which three towns were ruined. Then Spain, Russia, Transcaucasia and Constantinople felt the tremors and there were shocks at Manila and Charleston and volcanic eruptions accompanied by earthquakes manifested themselves in Chile. It is interesting to note says Youth's Companion that these shocks with the exception of the one at Charleston, occurred in the recognized earthquake belt, one of which encircles the Pacific ocean and the other goes about the earth by way of Mexico, the West Indies, Spain, Italy, the Caucasus, northern India, the Philippines and the Pacific islands.

So many school children have been found with defective eyesight that the school committees of several cities have considered furnishing eyeglasses free. It is a question how far government should go in supplying citizens with the necessary things of life. Most American parents will prefer to pay the oculist. In many cities are free dispensaries where poor children can be treated and receive free prescriptions for glasses. Parents should be warned against incompetent oculists who take advantage of the reports of the boards of education on the matter of eyesight in the schools and try to get business for themselves by exaggerated warnings to the parents of school children threatened with blindness.

'Psychic epilepsy' has succeeded 'brain storm' as a medical term. A New York physician has just been cleared of the charge of brutally assaulting a man and woman on the street on the plea that he had been subject to attacks of psychic epilepsy from childhood, and that on recovery he had no knowledge of what had occurred. Just how the ailment differs from ordinary epilepsy is not made clear, but it will undoubtedly prove to be a convenient handy in criminal procedure.

COMFORT OF THE GUEST.

Little Things in Which Some Hostesses Are Remiss.

With all that big empty closet in the guest room it seems a great pity to have one's best frock hung up in a crowded closet. The best frock, dust bag and all are accordingly snuggered into an obscure corner of the closet of the guest chamber, where it will not be the least bit in the way of the guest with the very largest wardrobe. There would be no harm in the party frock if it did not serve as an opening wedge for other garments. It is not long until a lace waist follows the gown, the winter suit and coat follow the waist and the closet has become a veritable storeroom. It is such a handy place and such a temptation to hang this or that odd garment on one of those invitingly empty hooks, but think of the feel lugs of the poor guest as she opens the closet door. The sight which greets her eye is not one calculated to make her feel very welcome. It suggests too strongly that there is hardly room for her. The same is true of the drawers in the bureau. They afford an excellent place in which to store the best linen, the reserve stock of bedding and the family linens but filled with these treasures they do not tempt the poor traveler to unpack her belongings and stop a while. The hostess should remember that if she expects her guest to be comfortable during her stay she must at least give her some place to put her things.

Every hostess however is not fortunate enough to have an extra room in her house which she can save exclusively for guests. If such is the case the visiting friend is usually asked to occupy the room of one of the members of the family who moves out temporarily. If this is done it would be a gentle courtesy if the person who moves out of the room would take with her all the things which she will be apt to need during her temporary encampment. This is by no means to save the guest from the interruption of frequent intrusions but to keep her from the uncomfortable feeling that she is crowding some one else out of her usual quarters.

The Home Doctor

Half a teaspoonful of table salt dissolved in a half glassful of cold water will give instant relief in case of heartburn.

Many cases of indigestion, headache, neuralgia, cold hands and feet can be quickly cured by drinking slowly one or two pints of water so hot that it almost burns the throat.

To inhale steam from a bowl of boiling water is very good for a sore throat. The sufferer should lean over the steam drawing it in both throat and nostrils.

People with poor digestion should drink no water with meals but take a glassful half an hour before and drink plentifully an hour or so after each meal.

Warts may be entirely removed by washing the hands two or three times a day with the water in which potatoes have been boiled or by bathing the warts several times with potato water.

Hen's Nest Eggs

Boil six or eight eggs quite hard. When cold and firm cut the whites from the yolks in long thin slips. Set them aside to warm in a slow oven taking care every now and then to liberally butter them.

Chop very fine any cold chicken or remains of fish add this to the yolks of the eggs a little parsley, pepper and salt. When all has been mixed smoothly mold it with the hands into egg-shaped balls. Heap these in the center of a dish.

Arrange the shredded egg around in imitation of a nest. Return to the oven for a few minutes to warm and just before serving pour over a rich brown sauce.

How to Wash Lace

Cover a bottle with fine white enamel and tack the edges of the lace upon it being careful to fasten down every little point and lay the lace as straight as possible. Squeeze the bottle in lukewarm soap and water till the lace is clean and rinse in the same way. Put it in the sun to dry dip bottle and all in starch, then wrap clean cambric round it and let dry in the open air. When quite dry the lace may be untacked and will look as good as new and will need little ironing. Black lace may be washed in the same way but without soap. A few drops of ammonia may be used instead. Black lace never should be ironed.

To Clean Furniture

Go over the furniture with a cloth dipped in paraffin oil and allow it to stand for an hour which will loosen the dirt. Next wash the furniture with a suds made of pure soap and rain water. Rub very dry with a soft cloth and polish with a piece of white flannel dipped in turpentine. This will not injure a piano, but restore the brilliant polish. Furniture gets dull because it is dirty and needs to be cleaned with soap and water.

Lemon Flavoring.

Do not throw away your lemon peels, but string them on a stout cord and hang up in a clean place to dry. When hard and brittle grate the yellow skin on a nutmeg grater and you will find that this powder makes the best kind of flavoring for cake or pudding. Half a teaspoonful is equal to one teaspoonful of the liquid kind put up in bottles. Orange skin can also be treated in the same way with success.

CROP CONDITIONS IN WESTERN CANADA

Lateness of Spring Overcome by Excellent Growing Season.

Once more the farmers of Western Canada rest at ease and grow rich while they slumber. Their season of anxiety is over. For a time it looked as though a backward season was for once going to prevent the western country from maintaining its preeminent position as leader of the grain growing countries of the world. The unusual lateness of the spring coupled with the rapid advance in the price of food stuffs gave the pessimists some reason for their gloomy forebodings and among even the optimist West embers imbued as they usually are with a spirit of buoyancy and hope there commenced to glimmer fear that perhaps this year their sanguine expectations were not to be realized. On May day when a large proportion of wheat had usually been sown there was this year very little sowing done. Finally however, winter which had tarried so late in the lap of spring in all parts of the Continent vanished before the vertical rays of the sun and the hurry and bustle of spring work commenced on the western prairies.

By the 20th of May 85% of the spring wheat was sown and the fall wheat in the districts devoted to its cultivation was covering the fields with a mantle of green. Wheat sowing finished on May 30 and by June 10 the coarser grains were also in the ground. The heavy snowfall during the winter left the ground in excellent shape when once sowing operations commenced and from the time weather conditions permitted the commencement of work until planting was completed the farmers were a busy class. The area in wheat is not much larger than last year but oats, barley and flax are much in excess of past records. The farmers deeming it wiser on account of the lateness of the season to put in a heavier proportion of the coarser grains. From the most reliable reports to hand it appears that the acreage as compared with 1906 will show an increase of 12% in oats, 18% in barley and 13% in flax.

Around Akotoks High River, Nanaimo, Clarensholm and other winter wheat centers if the present weather conditions continue the winter wheat will be in head by the middle of July.

The backward weather in the early part of May allowed the newly sown grain to get a firm root in the ground and now with an abundance of moisture and warm weather the growth is remarkable. All danger of injury from drought is practically over as the green crop covers the ground retaining the moisture required for its growth and preventing the too rapid evaporation which might otherwise take place.

Crops in Western Canada mature in one hundred days of good weather and as the weather conditions have been ideal since sowing and with spring wheat now from 14 to 18 inches above the ground a full average crop is confidently expected.

In addition to the cheering prospects of this year's yield the farmers are to be congratulated on the fact that they still have in their possession five million bushels of wheat from last year's crop which they are now disposing of at high prices.

The splendid yield of 90,000,000 bushels of wheat raised in 1906 in the three provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta together with the almost certain assurance that this year will see a considerable increase, is as in the past calling the attention of the world of the last best West and thousands from the United States and the agricultural districts of Europe are each month securing free grant lands or purchasing farms in the land which has proved itself peerless among the grain growing countries of the world.

Two Advertising Truths.

A soap millionaire and an actor manager were talking business.

I said the actor manager had discontinued the use of posters. My announcements appear in the news papers exclusively. I have learned that those who don't read the papers don't go to the theater.

"You are wise," said the soap millionaire. "And I do like you. Long since I discarded every form of advertisement save that of the press, finding that they who didn't read a daily paper had no use for soap."

RHEUMATISM CAN NOT BE RUBBED AWAY

It is perfectly natural to rub the spot that hurts, and when the muscles, nerves, joints and bones are throbbing and twitching with the pains of Rheumatism, the sufferer is apt to turn to the liniment bottle, or some other external application, in an effort to get relief from the disease, by producing counter-irritation on the flesh. Such treatment will quiet the pain temporarily, but can have no direct curative effect on the real disease because it does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Rheumatism is more than skin deep—it is rooted and grounded in the blood and can only be reached by constitutional treatment—IT CANNOT BE RUBBED AWAY.

Rheumatism is due to an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter which the natural avenues of bodily waste, the Bowels and Kidneys, have failed to carry off. This refuse matter, coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed into the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. The aches and pains are only symptoms, and though they may be scattered or relieved for a time by surface treatment, they will reappear at the first exposure to cold or dampness, or after an attack of indigestion or other irregularity. Rheumatism can never be permanently cured while the circulation remains saturated with irritating, pain-producing uric acid poison. The disease will shift from muscle to muscle or joint to joint, settling on the nerves, causing inflammation and swelling and such terrible pains that the nervous system is often shattered, the health undermined, and perhaps the patient becomes deformed and crippled for life. S. S. thoroughly cleanses the blood and renovates the circulation by neutralizing the acids and expelling all foreign matter from the system. It warms and invigorates the blood so that instead of a weak, sour stream, constantly depositing acid and corrosive matter in the muscles, nerves, joints and bones, the body is fed and nourished by rich, health-sustaining blood which completely and permanently cures Rheumatism. S. S. is composed of both purifying and tonic properties—just what is needed in every case of Rheumatism.

Not Comfortable.

"I'm going off into the mountains this summer and get close to the heart of nature," said the dreamy girl.

I once went off into the mountains to get close to the heart of nature said the matter-of-fact man. "I sought the woods and lay down close to her throbbering bosom. But I found she was full of red bugs and other peccating insects. So I arose and gloomily sought the artificial city."

It Knocks the Itch.

It may not cure all your ills but it does cure one of the worst. It cures any form of itch ever known—no matter what it is called, where the sensation is itch, it knocks it. Eczema, Ringworm and all the rest are relieved at once and cured by one box. It is guaranteed and its name is Hunt's.

Cure.

Very Handy.

"Among the people who greeted the President upon his arrival at Oyster Bay," says an exchange, "none attracted so much attention as a woman who carried two children in her arms and led another by the hand."

It strikes us that a capable woman like that would attract attention anywhere—
